COLONEL S. H. Lockett, acting President of the State Normal Institute, at Knoxville, writes that the death of Dr. Doak will make no change in the programme of the State Normal Institute, to be held at the University of Tennessee, beginning June 21st, and ending July 21st. Professors Joynes and McBryde will retain their places in the faculty. Teachers can come to Knoxville on the "spring excursion tickets." which are as low as the roads can make fare, and can be had at all principal stations.

It is generally understood that two well-known and competent citizens were employed as experts by the Taxing District authorities several weeks ago, to go over the books and ascertain the exact amount of the old city debt. The work is done. Now, will the authorities kindly furnish the public 1 00 with the result? Let us know what 85 to 75c | the debt is, when it falls due, and all about it. This is a question which should not be lost sight of, for it must be met sooner or later. The sooner disposed of the better. Memphis cannot strike out and go ahead in competition with rival cities larger or smaller until this matter is settled. The bill which was rejected may not have been the proper thing to accept. It may have been a Trojan horse full of Sheriffs, Marshals and mandamuses, though there is still a wide difference of opinion. The adjustment goes over until another Legislature meets: meantime the creditors lay siege through the courts and judgments are multiplying. The people may sleep, but there will be an awakening. The > money power never sleeps. THE Democracy of the city met in mass meeting at the courthouse Saturday night and chose delegates to go to Nashville on the 20th inst. The list is one of the ablest and best ever made up in Memphis. It includes leading men of wide reputation over the State, and represents nearly every J. T. Hillsman. shade of opinion and interest. We will not indorse beforehand what they will do, but it is safe to assume that old Shelby will be solid for harmony, will tender wise counsels, and exercise a conservative and healthful influence upon the convention. Shelby seeks not to lead or to dictate, but would consult calmly and deliberately with friends in the house of a friend, as to the best mearures to adopt, the course to to lead on to victory and a final settle ment of the State debt question. The names of those chosen Saturday afternoon by the country districts are not all known as yet, no doubt proper selections of men known to be good and intelligent have been made. Next Saturday there will be a mass meeting of the Democracy of the county to instruct the delegates chosen or to take such action as may be deemed advisable. There should be a full attendance and free discussion.

AMUSEMENTS.

Wilde's Lecture To-night. A deal of interest is felt by the local public regarding the proposed lecture to-night by the æsthetic leader, Oscar Wilde. Over four rows of dress girale seats were taken when the far as heard from, in all of the inteticket office opened this forenoon, and rior districts, the same expression many of the parquette seats had also prevails. been engaged. This indicates a crushing audience, and that it will be attentive and decorous, none can doubt. The subject, "Decorative raged Miss McDowell, at Rock Hill, Art," is a broad one, and in it Mr. Wilde is said to prove conclusively that beauty cannot be taught, only revealed. He attempts no analysis or description, but his method of treatment is by revelation.
